Dear Women's Ministry Leader,

My life's theme is Philippians 1:20-21 which states, "I earnestly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed but will have sufficient courage so that now, as always, Christ will be exalted in my life. For me, to live is Christ and to die is gain." Some of my most enjoyable experiences have involved being a keynote speaker at women's conferences in various venues across the United States. That being said, I would like to formally be considered as a conference speaker at your church. Attached please find my resume.

This packet of information has been given to one of your church attendees who recently participated in one of my Women's Conferences. My attendees are consistently my best 'references'! Would you give me the opportunity to conduct a conference at your church?

My conferences are multidenominational; I focus on biblical topics which all Christian churches embrace. I strive to bring the Bible alive and encourage all who attend to find their place in Jesus' plan for their life. Laughter, learning, fellowship and fun are key ingredients to my presentations.

I charge no formal fee and would enjoy speaking with you further about how we could work together. I can adjust to any type of time frame, am more than willing to present all materials prior to presentation, and while I have a wealth of information already prepared love a new challenge. All my contact information is listed above and I encourage you to look at my websites to learn about me further. Lastly, my attached resume includes references you can utilize.

I look forward to speaking with you soon.

Sincerely,

Sue McGeown
Philippians 1:20-21
